American Women in Radio & Television Mourns Passing of Past AWRT President, Lucille Luongo

It is with great sorrow that AWRT acknowledges the passing of past AWRT President, Lucille Luongo. Lucille served as the elected president of AWRT from 1995-1996. She was a cherished friend and colleague to so many individuals in the electronic media.

Lucille spent her career in the broadcast industry, most recently serving as the President & CEO of the Library of American Broadcasting in New York, a post she assumed in 2001. Said AWRT 2005/2006 President, Chickie Bucco, "Lucille was a strong leader and advocate for women in radio and television. She will be remembered for many things including how she helped lay a solid foundation for AWRT – a legacy that has seen upward trajectory ever since her tenure."

Lucille passed away the eve of January 11th at her home in Chappaqua, New York, where she was surrounded by her loving family, as was her wish.
